VERSE

When You walk into the room I can feel You
So I open the door of my heart
You can have it all You can have it all
And every time we're singing all about You
Your presence is filling the room
All the angels fall and all the angels fall

PRE-CHORUS

Singing Holy holy are You Lord
You're the One we're waiting for

CHORUS

Come You give hope to the hopeless
Come You give life to the broken ones
There is not another like You in all of our lives so
Come hear our hearts yearning
Come we are the burning ones
There is not another like You there is not another

BRIDGE

Like You always do and like You never have before
God fill up this room You can have it all
Like You always do and like You never have before
God fill up this room You can have it all
